

AIRFORCE SCHOOL ARJANGARH HOLIDAY HOMEWORK - UKG

"Holidays are a time to relax, explore, and learn new things in a fun way. This holiday homework will help you enjoy your break while staying creative and active!"

"Learning never stops! Let's make this autumn break special by reading stories, doing activities, and spending happy moments with family."

"Holiday homework is not just work, it's fun with family, nature, and creativity. Let's enjoy and learn together!"

"Dear little stars, here is some joyful holiday homework filled with exciting tasks that will make your holidays bright and full of smiles."

"Let's celebrate our holidays with stories, games, art, and little adventures—because every day is a chance to learn something new!"

Dear Parents,

Kindly assist our kids in developing passion for learning

Below given are some of the activities/ practice work that our young learners need to do.

1. Practice of phonic sound and diagraphs (ph,gh,ck,wh,th,etc.) And make a vocabulary diary.
2. Practice the pledge and the Air Force School song from the school diary.
3. Child should be encouraged to speak in English. Practice general conversations in English only.
4. Let's work on handwriting during this break. Please learn to write in legible and neat handwriting.
5. Practice the Counting, Alphabets, Swar व्यंजन done so far.
6. Visit a few historical monuments and knowledgeable places in Delhi.

Here are some of the suggestions : ➤ Waste to Wonder theme park [sarai kale khan]

- Rail Museum
- Doll Museum
- National Science Museum [Near Supreme Court metro]
- Qutub Minar
- Red Fort
- Rashtrapati Bhawan Museum
- India Gate
- Dilli Haat [INA, NSP]
- Dusherra Mela

7. Some of General Awareness questions are as follows :

- National song of India
- National Anthem of India
- Prime Minister of India
- President of India
- How many seasons in a year?
- How many months in a year ?
- How many days in a week ?

8. Take a picture with your family while doing any holiday activity (reading, cooking, gardening, or praying). Paste it in A4 size colourful sheet and write "This is my holiday memory."